Celebrating Winter Solstice Sacred Sound Music Festival on Zoom

Dear ONAC of NY Spirit Family and Friends,

Every December, we come together to celebrate the Winter Solstice—the shortest day and longest night in the Northern Hemisphere. For millennia, this sacred time has been honored as a moment of deep self-reflection, symbolizing the transition from darkness to light and the promise of new beginnings.

This coming Sunday, December 21st, from 7:30 PM to 9 PM EST, ONACNY is honored to invite a dozen of talented sacred sound musicians from across the globe to unite in celebrating the “rebirth of the sun” with a 90-minute Earth Medicine Music live concert on Zoom. Please feel free to share this event with your friends and family—all are welcome!

During the concert, the audience will be muted, but you are warmly encouraged to create your own sacred space at home—set up an altar, meditate, dance, play an instrument, or sing along with us. This is a powerful opportunity to co-create a field of healing and intention through the magic of music, allowing our inner light to shine as we raise the collective consciousness and welcome the new year together.

ONAC Winter Warmth Drive for our native brothers and sisters ~

It is the time of the year when our Mother Church's annual winter humanitarian drive begins. As you know, we have native friends on the Rosebud Reservation who were essential in blessing Oklevueha's mission. We feel a deep responsibility to give back as much as we can. These dear people live with so little, and the holidays and winter are especially challenging. We will be raising funds to send to them so they can purchase heating, fuel, and gifts for their loved ones. Even a contribution of $5 (a cup of nice coffee) will go a long way for those who are in need.

Support ONAC Humanitarian Fund: suggested contribution $5 ~ $50+

We wish you all the most abundant, loving blessings Creator has for you and your loved ones during this holiday season. Aho!
